-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

III. DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-35 are presented for examination.

Election/Restriction

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-3 and 24-25 drawn to managing access to information using an ID information management system, classified in class 707, subclass 104.1.
- II. Claims 4-6 and 26-27, drawn to managing access to information using an ID information management system , classified in class 707, subclass 2.
- III. Claims 7-10 and 28-30, drawn to managing access to information using an ID information management system, classified in class 707, subclass 6.
- IV. Claims 11-12 and 31, drawn to managing access to information using an ID information management system, classified in class 707, subclass 102.
- V. Claims 13-14 and 32, drawn to managing access to information using an ID information management system, classified in class 707, subclass 9.

Art Unit: 2175

VI. Claims 15-23 and 33-37, drawn to managing access to information using an ID information management system, classified in class 707, subclass 10.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as purchased points without requiring a dialog is established according to a predetermined talk script of invention II. See MPEP § 806.05 (d).

Inventions I and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as purchased points without requiring a comparing the requested name of the information item with the required name of the information item, wherein if these requested name of the; information item matches the required name of the information item of invention III. See MPEP § 806.05 (d).

Inventions I and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as purchased points without requiring a access history information of invention IV. See MPEP § 806.05 (d).

Inventions I and V are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as purchased points without requiring a converting the ID information into the second format of invention V. See MPEP § 806.05 (d).

Inventions I and VI are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown separate utility such as access history information without requiring a/the product or service ordered of invention of invention VI. See MPEP § 806.05 (d).

Inventions V and VI are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention V has separate utility such as converting the ID information into the second format without requiring a/the product or service ordered of invention of invention VI. See MPEP § 806.05 (d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Examiner attempted to contact Attorney made of record on February 19, 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirements, but did not result in an election being made because Attorney was unavailable.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
